DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-12, drawn to a transformed plant, and to a method of making the genetically modified plants of Group I.

Group II, claim(s) 13-20, drawn to a method for decreasing TSNAs in plants for example.

Group III, claim(s) 21-23, drawn to a plant that produces elevated levels of Vitamin C.

If Applicant elects Group II listed, then Applicant is required to elect one and only one of the following inventions to which the claims must be restricted.

- a. myo-inositol oxygenase enzyme
- b. L-gulono-gamma lactone oxidase
- c. rodent L-gulono lactone oxidase

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The inventions are linked by the technical feature of a transgenic plants with elevated Vitamin C. However, this technical feature is not special because it does not constitute an advance over the prior art. Jain, et al., (2000) Metabolic engineering of an alternative pathway for ascorbic acid biosynthesis in plants Molecular Breeding 6: 73-

Art Unit: 1638

78) cited by in the search report teaches a plant with 7 fold higher Vitamin C than controls, wherein said plants were obtained by genetic modification of the Vitamin C biosynthetic pathway (see, e.g., page Jain, et al., page 76, left column, 2nd and 4th paragraphs).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicants are reminded that nucleotide sequences encoding different proteins or comprising different regulatory sequences are structurally distinct chemical compounds and are unrelated to one another. These sequences are thus deemed to normally constitute independent and distinct inventions within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 121. Absent evidence to the contrary, each such nucleotide sequence is presumed to represent an independent and distinct invention, subject to a restriction requirement pursuant to 35 U.S.C. 121 and 37 CFR 1.141 et seq.

Applicant is required to select a single nucleotide sequence. This requirement is not to be construed as a requirement for an election of species, since each nucleotide sequence is not a member of single genus of invention, but constitutes an independent and patentably distinct invention.
